RECLAMATION CO.'S AFFAIRS ARE UNTANGLED BY BOND FIRM

COUNCIL POSTPONED ACTION ON FORFEITURE OF CONTRACT

The tangled affairs of the Western Reclamation Company are about to be straightened out.

Following the statement of the Chicago Bonding and Surety Company to the council Monday night that it would pay the wages due workmen who were unable to collect from Just Anderson for dredging work on the waterway, $1700 arrived in Richmond for the purpose.

The council was last night assured that a representative of the company would arrive Sunday morning to settle up the other obligations for which the company is responsible.

Ross Morgan, consulting engineer from San Francisco, who laid out the Ellis slough project nine years ago, last night appeared before the council in behalf of the Ellis Land and Dock Company and asked that the whole matter be postponed until next Monday night, when the bonding company's man would appear.

Morgan said he was sure the suit started some time ago by the Morgan Oyster Company against the Ellis Land and Dock Company because the Morgan Company's property was injured by the removal of dirt by the Ellis Company, would be compromised at a conference to be held in Oakland today.

The whole matter would then be in excellent shape for concerted action by all parties concerned, said Morgan.

The council postponed action on the forfeiture of the dredging contract until Monday.

CONVICTED OF GAMBLING: TO BE SENTENCED ON SATURDAY

John Egish, who operates a billiard room in West Richmond, next to the postoffice, yesterday was convicted on a charge of gambling by a jury in Judge Lindsay's court. He will be sentenced Saturday morning.

Deputy District Attorney A. S. Ormsby prosecuted the case. Attorneys Clare D. Horner and W. S. Robenson handled the defense.

Steve Pandich, the complaining witness, testified he had played stud poker in the back of the billiard room and that Egish took a percentage on the game. Pandich testified he had lost $60 one night. He went back next morning and won $15, but when he went to cash in, Egish refused to pay up, he said.

Pandich was acquitted in the Police Court Tuesday on a charge of carrying concealed weapons after he had been arrested Monday night with two Austrians, who were fined $15 each for disturbing the peace.

The defense attacked the credibility of Pandich's testimony, declaring he was inspired entirely by spite.

The minimum penalty that Egish can receive is a fine of $100; the maximum a fine of $500 and six months in jail.

Dry Dance May Stay Open 'Til 1 A. M.

City Attorney Finds That Law Has Been Misconstrued for Some Time Past.

Richmond dancers may shake a foot for one hour on Sunday morning without fear of the cop, who heretofore has stopped the music at midnight Saturday.

This discovery was made by the council last night when it was about to deny the request of a dance hall owner to be allowed to operate his place until 1 o'clock Sunday morning.

City Attorney Hall found that under the present ordinance any dance where liquor is not served can run till 1 o'clock Sunday morning. Through a misunderstanding the police have been ordering the doors closed at 12.

CHARGE THEFT OF GLOVES AND SOX

John Patterson was arrested yesterday by Officers Wright and Standiford at Sixth and Macdonald. He is accused of stealing some gloves and stockings from a store. He will answer to a charge of petty larceny.

RATE CASE REHEARING DENIED S. P.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 12.—The railroad commission this morning denied the application of the Southern Pacific Company for a rehearing on the transbay suburban rate case.

The company's efforts to bring about an increase in the commutation fares on the suburban system between this city and Alameda county points and one-way fares within the city of Oakland have, as far as the railroad commission is concerned, proved futile.

There is a possibility that an appeal will be taken to the Supreme Court.

The corporation requested the rehearing on the theory that the decision of the railroad commission constituted a violation of the federal constitution, which holds that property cannot be confiscated without due process of law. The railroad officials contended that being forced to operate at a loss amounts to a confiscation of their lines. The original opinion of the Railroad Commission declared that the Southern Pacific was in excellent financial shape, and that an increase of commutation rates would work a great hardship on thousands of commuters who had bought homes and planned their financial outlay on the strength of a reasonable and cheap transportation rate.

The railroad claimed to be losing millions of dollars yearly.

ASKS LARGE DAMAGES.

Raymond Penser, a musician, has filed suit in the Superior Court against the S. P. for $50,825. Penser alleges in his complaint that he was thrown from a train going twenty miles an hour on the night of October 29, and permanently injured.

SOME OF THE CREW OF GERMAN TERROR SUNK OFF COCOS ISLAND

A number of these men were killed when the Emden, German terror of the Pacific ocean, whose career could only be likened to that of the Confederate gunboat Alabama of the Civil War, was wrecked by the Australian cruiser Sydney at Cocos Island.

Within an hour after the Sydney started firing the Emden was aflame and is now ashore on Keeling Island. A number of the men were ashore nad were not captured by the Britishers.

Flanders Battle Is On Balance

Russian Troops Capture Town

Reckless Assaults On The Yser

LONDON, Nov. 12.—The allies are at the gates of Ostend, which the Germans have abandoned.

The West Flanders battle is on the balance. The allies are managing to hold the line from Dixmude to Ypres. With the exception of the capture of Dixmude, the Germans, according to the British war office, have made little progress. Victory or defeat for the allies' arms will be decided in a day or two.

PARIS, Nov. 12.—A terrific machine gun battle raged on the Yser all day. The Belgians, battle weary, desperately held the west bank of the canal against the reckless assault of the Duke of Wuerttemburg's army.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—Ecuador and Colombia have been emphatically warned that the allies will not countenance further violations of neutrality. The U. S. government was advised today of the diplomatic note sent the southern countries.

LONDON—The Russian army continues its advance into East Prussia. Johannisburg has been taken.

LOCOCO'S DEFENSE TO BE JUSTIFIABLE HOMICIDE

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 12.—Joseph Lococo's defense will probably be justifiable homicide and not temporary suicide. His lawyers, Coghlan and O'Conner, are mapping out the plan of defense now.

"Whatever plea we make," said Coghland, "we will certainly bring out Gray Brothers' shady reputation in the evidence."

Lococo shot George Gray of Gray Brothers because he had been repeatedly refused wages he had earned. Harry N. Gray, brother of the dead man, today refused to swear out a warrant charging Lococo with murder, and said that the Gray family under no circumstances would hire an attorney to prosecute the case.

Pullman Will Celebrate With Big Street Carnival

Tomorrow night will be a big night in Pullman. Three brass bands are scheduled to make things lively while young and old tango, and hesitate, and hop around most any old style, on the new pavement.

There is to be a minstrel show and oratorical fireworks—sure, there ought to be speeches on an occasion like that—and various other attractions.

The Municipal Improvement Club and public spirited citizens arranged the street carnival to celebrate the opening of Pullman avenue. You are invited. So are all your neighbors. The Pullman folks are prepared to show you a big time.

BOY HAS DIPHTHERIA; HOME IS QUARANTINED

George Elwood Clark, 8-year-old son of C. E. Clark, 518 Ninth street, is suffering from diphtheria. The Clark residence is under quarantine. There are two other cases of diphtheria in the neighborhood. All are mild attacks, say the city health authorities, but every precaution is being taken to prevent the spread of the disease.

Gus Nalen was arrested at Richmond and Railroad avenues yesterday by Officer Kreamer and charged with begging and intoxication.

Twenty Days and Twenty Dollars for Gun Toters

Sam Bossi, Servian, arrested Wednesday night with a big gun by Sergeant Barry, was fined $20 in police court by Judge Lindsay yesterday.

Carrying a gun also brought George Birmingham the gift of twenty days' free board from the judge. Birmingham was picked up at the Santa Fe station sleeping by Officers Sprague and Jennings.

Henry White and Charles Williams were arrested at the same time, but were released, as there was no evidence of law violation against them.

INQUEST WILL BE HELD TUESDAY IN MARTINEZ

Coroner C. L. Abbott will be in Martinez next Tuesday afternoon to hold inquests at the Hauser undertaking parlors.

The cases are those of Ruth Guest, the 14-year-old child, whose leg was crushed by a Santa Fe train at Nichols and who was claimed by death shortly afterwards.

Carl Bjornsen, the sailor who fell overboard and was drowned off Point Edith. Peter Dolan of the Nevada docks, who was struck down by the Owl on Tuesday night near Port Costa.

BLACKIE FORD WILL GO TO FOLSOM

MARYSVILLE, Nov. 12.—"I will stay in the county jail all my life rather than go to the penitentiary when there is a possible chance for me to escape that ignominy," said Richard "Blackie" Ford, who is under sentence of life for the murder of District Attorney Manwell in Yuba county a year ago, in discussing the unfavorable verdict rendered on his appeal by the Supreme Court.

Ford has sent for his attorney, Maxwell McNutt, who lives in San Francisco. The convicted man is anxious to determine whether or not his case can be taken up by the Supreme Court of the United States.

An attache of the sheriff's office of Yuba county will come after Ford to take him to Folsom this week.

Ford's demeanor is just the same as it was when he was first brought here from Yuba county. He is still confident that his lawyers will find some loophole through which he can escape going to the penitentiary.

83-YEAR-OLD WOMANSLAIN FOR SAVINGS BY RANCHER

TRYS TO PROTECT DAUGHTER; IS SLAUGHTERED MERCILESSLY

Angered because he thought his aged wife and his stepdaughter were conspiring to cheat him out of his half of $500, Peter Manni, 73-year-old rancher of Concord, at 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon shot and killed his wife with a shotgun.

He shot her at close range, firing both barrels. Half of the woman's head was blown off. The little kitchen of the farm house was a horrible shambles when the officers came from Martinez.

After shooting her he put his gun back in place in his cabin behind the house nad walked into Concord. He met Constable Lavezzola on the street at about 2 o'clock.

"Hello Lavezzola," he said calmly. "I've just shot my wife."

Lavezzola, who has known Manni for the last 15 years, at first thought the old man was joking. He was at last convinced and took the murderer into Martinez, where he is now held in a cell.

Under Sheriff Willie Veale and Assistant District Attorney Taylor left at 6 o'clock for Concord.

Manni has lived with his wife and his stepdaughter, Marie Pettelli, for the last 20 years in or near Concord. Recently the old woman took a cottage on the Concord-Bay Point road and Manni lived in a small cabin behind the house. They had a 80-acre ranch on which they grew hay.

Manni has always been suspicious of his stepdaughter, who is 40 years old, at present separated from her husband, and the daughter of the dead woman's first husband.

Mrs. Manni had, it is said, $500 in the Bank of Concord. Nine days ago Manni told his wife that he would give her just nine days to give him half of the money or he would kill her and Mrs. Marie Pottelli.

Yesterday the time was up and, according to his story, he attempted to kill the daughter, when his wife tried to prevent him.

"I killed my wife," he told Taylor and Veale, "but I wanted to get that Pottelli woman. She's been trying to cheat me out of the money all the time. I come in with the gun ready to shoot her. She screams and my wife she grab the gun. So I shoot her instead. I'm not sorry. But I wish I had killed Marie, too."

It was first thought that the old man was a raving maniac. But after talking with him, both Veale and Taylor declare that he is sane.

Several years ago Manni worked as a butcher for Foskett and Elworthy, who ran a meat market in Concord. Later he was a laborer.

He gave his wife $25 per month for his support, but kept to his little cabin and refused to have anything to do with either her or the daughter.

Mrs. Pottelli has five small children.

CITY DADS DENY R. R. REQUEST

The city council last night overruled the protest of the Santa Fe Railway Company against the opening of Main, Florida and Virginia streets, through Santa Fe land.

WHO MADE THE WAR?

To admit that Business as now conducted has caused this war would be to admit that Business as now conducted and proposed by our great business men drive us into a war. With the press admitting that, public opinion would be against some things the business men want; the business men would be displeased; the press would lose much profit. Because the press lives on for Business; and will not tell you the truth when the truth, if known, would hit Business hard.

Right now the Press is making us believe that the thing for us to do is to grab all the foreign trade. Oh, yes, let's forget our troubles at home—let's forget Colorado—let's forget West Virginia—let's forget Lawrence and Paterson—let's forget everything that the men who control business in this country do for bigger profits; let's get the foreign trade for them so that they can make still bigger profits.

Now, see here, is this sense? If we have war right here at home for the sake of profits—if we shoot each other for somebody's profit—if the men who control our mines and factories will hire gunmen to shoot down workers for the sake of profit, will those men hesitate to drive us into a great war when their profits are threatened? Will they? If there any chance that they will hesitate? Is there?

We are running right down the same road that Germany took and at the end is bound to be war. Let's stop. The thing for our government to do is to promote fair dealing at home. Give the workingman here fair treatment, let him get what he earns—that's the first duty of our government. When it has made the men who control business do that there is plenty of time to worry about foreign trade for them. You see what caused the European war. Do you want war? We are going right into it ultimately. It can't be dodged if we keep on this way. You'd better think it over.—Pearson's.

FRATERNAL DELEGATES.

The question of religion, brought up on the floor of the Seattle convention of the American Federation of Labor last year, started a wordy fight that was quelled with difficulty.

Yesterday in Philadelphia, fraternal delegates from both Protestant and Catholic organizations came very near precipitating another dispute, which was quieted by President Gompers. Gompers.

To an organization that is made up of men of a hundred different creeds, religious questions are dangerous. Each man believes his creed is the Truth and jealously guards it.

Organized labor of this country has enough difficulties to surmount, enough factional quarrels without adding religion.

Under the banner of the American Federation of Labor are over two million men and most of them have ideas of their own. Disputes are inevitable. If they were all angels they might well get along in absolute peace. But they are just plain human beings.

At the risk of being indiscreet, we wonder why the question of religion has to be added to the burden of organized labor.

Wouldn't it be far better to have no delegates from religious organipations on the floor of the American Federation of Labor conventions?

The A. F. of L. is combating powerful foes, outside the organization and inside it. It is facing new problems every day. It has to work every minute to hold the advantages it has already won by hard fighting. Despite all that it is forging ahead. When the emergency comes the factions pull together.

An argument on religion is endless. In all fairness, the American Federation of Labor would probably get along better without any delegates from religious organizations.

OLD FRIENDS.

Whenever Turkey goes to war, the newspapers of the country use the same forty jokes over again.

Joke No. 1 is to the effect that the powers will carve Turkey for Thanksgiving.

There are 39 more, but that first one is enough. The Turkey joke along with what Sherman said about war are the last resort of the poor fellows that have to write jokes for a living.

They are both about as funny as an asthmatic kitten in a snow drift.

BRIEF AND TO THE POINT.

The briefest war advice has been given by George Bernard Shaw.

"Shoot your officers and go home," was his advice to the workingmen that are busy in Europe killing each other

Shaw should have been a headline writer.

FREE AND EQUAL.

To those who believe that the United States has little the matter with it and that little can be removed by some surface fixing, the following is dedicated:

CHICAGO, Nov. 12.—There are 1596 persons, making up 357 families, living in one block in one of Chicago's tenement districts, according to a report today by investigators of the bureau of social survey.

The investigators found only eight bath tubs in the block—an average of one tub for each 200 people. Forty-six persons have the eight bath tubs, the remaining 1550 having no tubs at all. More than one-fourth of the families live in three-room apartments and have only one bedroom.

Wages of the householders were found to average $12.27 a week and the yearly family income was said to be far below $12 a week.

Of the 1596 persons living in the block, 805 are children.

We are trying to print nothing but facts in the Daily News. We believe that exaggerated news doesn't pay in the long run.

Our ambition is to make the News synonymous for accuracy. Sensation undoubtedly appeals for a short time. But consistent TRUTH is a hundred times more preferable.

When you read the news, then, in this paper, you can be assured that it is neither exaggerated nor "fluffed."

LABOR NEWS

"In unity there is strength, united we stand divided we fall."

BIG MARTINEZ JOB MAY BE DONE "FAIR"

TO GIVE WORK TO HUNDREDS OF MEN

That the immense building job about to start in Martinez would probably be union was the report of Business Agent Heckman at the meeting last night of the Building Trades Council.

He declared that fifty or sixty cottages were to be built and forty-five stills by the Shell interests and that according to present indications the big job would be completed under union conditions. The tank work that has been done so far in Martinez has been constructed by union men.

The big job will give work to carpenters, bricklayers, sheet metal workers, pipe fitters, plumbers and painters, practically all of the building trades men.

J. F. Throwers was seated as a delegate from the teamsters and Brothers Owens and Johnson seated as fraternal delegates from Oakland.

All of the reports of the delegates were encouraging.

INVESTIGATOR SAYS 12-HOUR MEN ARE SLAVES TO MACHINES

Dr. Manley, who recently investigated for the Federal Bureau of Labor conditions of employment in the iron and steel industry, asserted that the number of twelve-hour men was enormous in the manufacture of iron and steel, gas, cement, paper and pulp, coke, starch, beet sugar, glass battle, in many branches of the chemical industries, and in bakeries, and he added that they form the labor force also in a long list of minor industries.

"These men," he said, "are little better than slaves to the machines they operate. The twelve-hour worker has no time for recreation, no time for friends, no time for his wife, no time for his children, to whom he is a dull stranger, who comes and goes, and whom they see less frequently and know less intimately than their school teachers."

EIGHT HOUR LAW BEFORE PHILA. LABOR CONVENTION

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 12.—The Eight-Hour League of San Francisco, in a telegraphic communication to the convention, asks that the American Federation of Labor request all political parties to insert in their platforms a declaration favoring a universal eight-hour working day.

The communication was referred to the committee on resolutions after President Gompers had declared that he had issued no statement concerning the eight-hour law to be used in the recent campaign in California. President Gompers asserted that he had his own views on the subject, and would make those views public before the convention adjourned.

A resolution was presented at today's convention of the American Federation of Labor urging President Wilson to insist that the Colorado mine owners accept the federal plan for peace and if they fail to comply that the President take steps to have the coal mines operated under government supervision.

Fraternal delegates from Protestant and Catholic church federations severely criticized Socialism and the resultant turmoil started when several delegates leaped to their feet and demanded recognition, was quieted with difficulty by President Gompers. Gompers.

One of the religious delegates severely criticized the actions of the strikers in Colorado.

Frank P. Walsh, chairman of the Federal Industrial Commission, said that the commission in reporting next month to Congress will declare that a majority of the employers of the United States are in favor of collective bargaining with their employes.

NEW OFFICERS OF CAR UNIONS

Pen Paralysis! Have you got it?

NO, we do not mean merely paralysis of the fingers. We mean another kind of paralysis far more serious; the kind that paralyzes the pen writer—not sometimes but always.

Pen writing in this age means needless time waste, needless labor waste, needless fatigue. Every one who continues to write with the pen in this day of the typewriter is placing himself under a heavy time and labor handicap, a handicap which means partial paralysis of all his energies.

The cure for pen paralysis, the new and certain cure, is the

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

BY SCOOP

HEAD'S SCHOOL TROUNCES RUH'S FIRST TEAM; 21 TO 9

Displaying "come-back" qualities similar to those for which our own teams have long been famous for, the first girls' nine of Mrs. Head's school of Berkeley yesterday afternoon gave "pit-for-pat" and took the first game of the season from the local girls to the score of 21 to 9. The pre-eminent reason that the local girls were defeated is that Coach Gaynor, believing the game to be practically won by the local nine, replaced three of the players, Miss Thelma Milnes, Captain Anita Kreuger and Miss Vera Lautenschlager, with freshmen players, who did not so effectively stand the fire of the Berkeleyans.

The local girls also declare that the Berkeley team has improved a hundred per cent since the last contest, and will now be able to furnish Richmond's best with a hard game. Much surprise and spirit has been aroused by the loss of the game and a challenge for a return game is already assured.

POPULAR HIGH BOY WILL STUDY LAW

Archie Soito, a member of the class of '15, has entered the services of the law firm of Johnston & Pierce. He will study law while working in their offices, and has already taken up the study of elementary law.

His opportunities for rapid advancement are splendid and as he is much interested in his work, he is studying hard.

The game with Heald's Business College of Oakland, in the high school gymnasium tonight, promises to be the most interesting game of the preliminary games previous to the opening of the C. A. C. A. A. league. The Oaklanders are among the fastest basket tossers in the county seat metropolis and our home folks will see "our prides" lined up against a high standard team for the first time. If they win tonight we will be able to place our players on a par with those of Oakland and Berkeley high. This for past years has been a topic of much discussion and that momentous question will be setttled for the first time tonight.

The local team lined up as follows: Forwards, Captain Anita Kreuger, Maryanna Mount, Ethel Hall; centers, Thelma Milnes, Evelyn Robertson, Vera Lautenschlager; guards, Jennievea Moore, Edith Adams, Elizabeth McMullen; subs, Helen Burton and Ethel Lambrecht.

Next Saturday the firsts of Ruhs will start traveling, and very few more chances will be extended the stay-at-home basketball "bugs" to see the locals in action. The local lineup will be very much as in the past, and will be the team which will go into battle with Centerville on the opening game of the league.

A delightful little dance has been arranged for and will follow fast upon the finish of the game. Good music and a good floor promises a large crowd of dansant enthusiasts as well as basketball devotees.

CURRENT EVENTS IS CARD AT RODEO CLUB

The regular meeting of the Rodeo Club, held in the assembly room of the high school, spent an interesting meeting in the discussion of current events; which at this time is a most abundant subject.

Other matters of minor importance were discussed by the club.

The Senate will hold a debate a week from next Wednesday. The teams will be picked from Senators Gray, Hoffman, Follett, Stewart and Sharp.

RUGBY BATTLERS ON EDGE FOR BIG GAME OF THE YEAR

With both teams on fighting edge Stanford and California are waiting for the tap of the bell that will set them going in "the big game" tomorrow.

Coach Floyd Brown of Stanford announced his lineup yesterday. He sprang one surprise on the dopesters by placing Pettingill in the second row of the scrum over Braden. The Stanford lineup is as follows:

Fullback, Andrews; three-quarters, Reeves and Urbans, wings; Carrol, center; fives, Austin and Lachmund; halfback, Erb; forwards, front row, Hall Wines, Soper; middle row, Clover, Pettingill; breakaways, Wylie and Gard (captain); lock, Blase.

California is not definitely decided as to its back field men. There is a slight chance that a surprise may be sprung for fullback, and the two men for the wing three-quarters are not sure. Brooks at center three appears the one man who is sure of his job. The recent injury to Canfield upsets the calculations for five-eighths, and he may not be right for the game.

Just who will take his place is a mystery, but the playing of Sharp in that berth against the Olympics makes it look as though he would be the man in case of an emergency. Gianelli is of course sure to be on the five line.

On his record for the season as a scorer and particularly as a goal kicker, Montgomery looks like a cinch for the team, but there is a doubt at Berkeley as to whether he or Harper is the one for the halfback position.

The California front row men appear to be Russel, McKim and Smith, but the other berths are still "under consideration." Lockhardt was considered pretty sure of the lock position up to Saturday, but the game Liversedge played makes this lad loom up as a possibility, and a big one.

Warnings have been sent out that fake tickets to the game are being peddled.

Weird and Wild Finish In Greatest Auto Grind

PHOENIX, Nov. 12.—The town of Phoenix is wild tonight about the spectacular finish of the most sensational automobile race ever staged, in which Barney Oldfield, veteran racer, took first place after his car had broken down nine miles from the finish and he had given up all hope of winning.

Louis Nikrent beat Oldfield to the finish by miles and was first declared the winner of the "cactus derby," as the 696-mile dash across the desert from Los Angeles to Phoenix is known, but when the judges had figured out the time, Oldfield was declared winner.

Oldfield drove the course in 23 hours 1 3-5 seconds. Nikrent's time was 23 hours 35 minutes and 56 2-5 seconds. When Oldfield's battered car jolted to the finish line it was so covered with mud that the crowd could not recognize car or driver. Oldfield's invariable cigar sticking out through the face shield gave the watchers the first indication as to what the rolling lump of mud might be. Nikrent had finished in little better shape.

Bill Bramlett crossed the finish line at thirty miles an hour with his steering gear all stripped away and part dragging in the mud under the car. Helped by his mechanic, he guided the car with fence rails lashed to the axle and operated against the front wheels by driver and mechanic in much the way a small boy guides a hoop with a stick.

Bramlett went over a 12-fot embankment a short way out of Prescott, managed to get his car back on the road, and 15 miles from the finish went into the ditch again. Then he drove the wrecked car the last fifteen miles with the fence rail steering gear.

The other racers came rolling in at irregular intervals for hours. Today all the racers are guests of the city and the town is wide open to them.

RICHMOND IN REVIEW

BY NEMO.

WELL, I overslept
THIS morning
AND AM RUSHED to death
WITH WORK tonight,
AND I am in a devil of a hurry
BECAUSE I have to cover city hall
AT 8 o'clock.
IT'S 7:40 now,
AND I WANT time
TO SHOOT into Pat Dean's
AND TIP one over
ON my way
TO COUNCIL meeting.
I WONDER if I'll make it?
IT'S a long way
TO THE BOTTOM of the page,
BUT I AM not a guy
TO QUIT cold at the post.
COME ON, you Remington!!
I WISH I knew
SOMETHING to write about.
BUT then
THAT DOESN'T make
MUCH difference
IN A NUT column.
LOTS OF FOLKS may think
THAT THIS is easy work,
BUT it takes time,
I'LL TELL you.
LOTS of days
I SWEAT away
AT this machine
FOR MORE THAN twenty minutes,
BUT I am rushed
SO hard
TONIGHT
THAT IF
THE column
IS not
AS rotten
THIS morning
AS YOU think
IT ought to be,
WHY,
HAVE a heart!
I'LL have
MORE time
TO make it
WORSE
SAY,
I guess
WE'RE going
SOME.
I thought
OF this,
AND now
I see
THE bottom
OF THE column
JUST walking
RIGHT up at me.
MAYBE I'll get
HAVE time
TO dodge into
MARTY McNALLY'S,
TOO,
ON THE way down
AND join the
CITY fathers
IN A cold one
BEFORE they
GO to work.
WELL, here
WE'VE turned
INTO THE stretch,
OLD REMINGTON,
AND WE are running
NECK and neck
WITH my
OLD DOLLAR Ingersoll.
COME ON, babe!
A LITTLE more
AND we'll
SHOOT under
THE wire
SAFE
A MILE.
I guess
THERE'S class
TO us.
ALL ready now,
THE final
SPURT!
JUST ten
MORE lines
TO the BOTTOM of
THE page.
WELL, here
WE are.
IT'S 7:42.
WE win.
AND me
FOR PAT'S!!!

CATTLE PLAGUE THREATENS MEN

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—Foot and mouth disease now raging among cattle in fourteen states is communicable to humans, the Department of Agriculture announced today, but its effect rarely is serious. The department urged, however, that humans keep away from diseased cattle to avoid spreading the infection, and recommended the use of pasteurized milk.

CLABBY-GIBBONS MATCH IN SIGHT

A ten-round battle between Jimmy Clabby and Mike Gibbons in New York some time in December or January was practically clinched this afternoon. Barney Litchenstein, manager of Clabby, received a wire from Promoter Jimmy Johnston, asking him to name his terms. Litchenstein wired back that $10,000 is his price. The New Yorker did not register any kick. Clabby's manager was originally offered $7000, but he refused it.

Litchenstein is out with a challenge in behalf of Joe Welling to fight either Willie Ritchie or Red Watson.

BASEBALL CLUBS WILL MEET IN S. F.

OMAHA, Nov. 12.—San Francisco was unanimously selected as the meeting place in 1915 of the National Association of Professional Baseball Clubs at its closing session this afternoon.

Revision of the constitution occupied the session for two hours late today. An attempt to revise the optional agreement section whereby such agreements would not carry a cash consideration was tabled after a lively debate.

The class C and class D leagues were permitted to retain their present salary limits.

TWO SUSPECTS ARRESTED IN EMPTY HOUSE

Upon complaint of residents in the neighborhood that two men had been loitering about an empty building at 441 Seventh street for several nights, Sergeant Jennings yesterday arrested J. C. Bromley and George A. Kelly. People in the neighborhood feared the men were incendiaries.

They explained that they were out of work and had bene sleeping in the deserted house. Kelly is said to have operated a clothes cleaning establishment in Richmond. Bromley had tools that would indicate he was a lineman by trade. The men were held for investigation.

Five Years for Theft of Teeth

Pitches False Ivories Into River As Joke—Now He'll Go to Jail for It—She Is Satisfied.

KALAMAZOO, Mich., Nov. 12.—Floyd Trayer, 19, has been sentenced to the Michigan state penitentiary to serve a term of from one to five years for a crime, or perhaps he considered it a joke, against his aunt.

Finding her new false teeth in a glass of water, the young man stole them and cast them far out into the Kalamazoo river.

His aunt declares the penalty imposed is none too severe.

GRAPE MEN ASK RAISE IN PRICE

SANTA ROSA, Nov. 12.—War between grape growers and wine manufacturers is imminent, as the result of a meeting of grape growers held in Healdsburg yesterday. Charging that wine manufacturers have failed to keep their agreement with the growers, 250 Sonoma county growers have combined to force up the price of wine grapes.

They charge that the price of grapes before the scare over the wine tax was $25 a ton. This went down to $17, with the understanding prices would rise to the original figure if the tax were not laid. They say the wine men have not kept their word, and that the price remains at $17.

A committee, consisting of two men each from twelve districts in Sonoma and Napa counties is to be named to wait upon the California Wine Association in San Francisco and force an agreement.
